

TENNIS NEWSLETTER

February 3, 2025

Ladies Tennis Clinic

Last week's interclub results:

Last Sunday in a makeup match the 3.0 ladies won 4-0. It was highlighted by Barb Bechard-Charlotte Wallis and Maureen Peloquin-Joan Murphy winning their matches in third set tiebreakers

Monday 3.5 ladies won by virtue of sets won 2-2. The 3.5 men lost 2-2 also by sets won.

The 3.0 ladies won 3-1 as Robin Gale and Charlotte Wallis won a third set tiebreaker to clinch the match. The 2.5 men lost 1-2 but Paul McAvoy - John Yates played the match of the day losing 10-12 in the tiebreaker.

Tuesday the 2.5 ladies lost 0-3 but two matches went to tiebreaker. The 3.0 men lost by the number of games won.

Wednesday the 2.5 ladies lost 0-3. The 3.0 ladies won 3-1

Thursday the 3.0 men won 4-0

Friday the 2.5 ladies won 2-1. The 2.5 men won 3-0. The 3.0 ladies won 2-1. The 3.5 ladies lost 1-3

Saturday the 6.0 mixed team lost 1-2

The 2.5 ladies won their makeup match on Saturday 3-0 Gaetane Gauvin-Lynn Wiebenga pulled out a 2.5 hour match 7-6,6-7,10-8. This was the longest match of the year and it was definitely the match of the week

Upcoming matches this week:

Monday 2.5 men at 11am and the 3.5 ladies at 1pm

Tuesday the 3.0 men

Wednesday the 3.0 ladies

Friday 2.5 ladies at 1pm and the 3.0 ladies at 3pm

Upcoming events:

The Mixed Doubles Club Championship

February 15- Social Doubles

Tip of the week:

Hitting with power is a big bonus in tennis but if it's not controlled it's a liability. Find a swing speed that you can gain consistency with and develop your confidence in keeping the ball in play

See you on the courts

See you on the courts, Mike Barnes!