

TENNIS NEWSLETTER

March 10, 2025

It's going to be a busy weekend as we host the 2.5 men's interclub playoff Friday at 11 and the doubles social on Sunday at 4. If you're coming to see the playoffs on Friday I would advise riding your bike because parking is limited.

Last week's results:

Monday the 3.5 ladies won 3-1. The 3.5 men lost 1-3. The 3.0 women lost 1-3. The 2.5 men won 3-0.

Tuesday the 3.0 men lost 1-3. The 2.5 women lost 1-2 but Cheryl Hockin - Ellen Arksey played 3 straight tie-breakers.

Wednesday the 3.0 women won 2-2 by virtue of games.

Thursday 3.0 men won 4-0. The 3.0 ladies lost 1-3.

Friday the 2.5 men lost 0-3 but still managed to capture first place and the winter season title and will now head to the finals. The 3.5 women won 4-0. The 3.0 ladies lost 0-3.

This weeks home matches:

Monday 2.5 men

Tuesday 2.5 women

Saturday 6.0 mixed doubles

Speaking of mixed doubles, the finals of the 7.0 was won by Jim Gelhaar-Diane Watson over Russ Ryan-Linda Zimmer. It was tennis at a very high level that ended in 10-8 tiebreaker .

The Club Championship Doubles continues this month as matches are posted on the bulletin board for starting time

The Friday clinic at 11 is postponed because of the interclub playoff

Tip of the week:

As you watch the playoffs this Friday I want to see how the teams develop and play there points. See if you can analyze the strategy and see if it's executed. Some points are a result of errors but others are actually won by good tactics

See you on the courts, Mike Barnes!